

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

HON. K. MICHAEL CONAWAY

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, February 7, 2008

Mr. CONAWAY. Madam Speaker, on rollcall No. 30, H. Res. 942—Recognizing the significance of Black History Month, I was attending a funeral for a soldier killed in Iraq.

Had I been present, I would have voted "yea."

RECOGNIZING THE SIGNIFICANCE OF BLACK HISTORY MONTH

SPEECH OF

HON. EDDIE BERNICE JOHNSON

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, February 6, 2008

Ms. EDDIE BERNICE JOHNSON of Texas. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in strong support of Congressman AL GREEN's resolution to honor Black History Month.

As the brainchild of Carter G. Woodson, the celebration of the many contributions of African Americans to this Nation has evolved from its 1926 inception as Negro History Week, to what we now know as Black History Month. As apparent by the change in titles, the mentality of our nation towards race and race relations has made significant improvements with each generation.

Although African Americans were an integral part of the founding of this nation dating back to at least to the colonial times, it was not until the 20th century that they gained a respectable presence in the history books. Prior to Woodson's vehement efforts to write African Americans into the history of the Nation, books largely ignored the African American population except to mention them in the context of slavery. That is why it is so important that the full history of African Americans continue to be preserved and taught so that future generations of all Americans will know our abundant heritage.

An ancient proverb states, "Who has no past, has no future." African Americans have made significant contributions to this nation's history, and we continue to build that rich legacy today. Because of the continued efforts of those who educate our schoolchildren, future generations will know about how a race of oppressed people overcame the social and political obstacles of slavery and Jim Crow to become great innovators, scientists, novelists, musicians, philosophers, and political leaders.

The inclusion of African Americans in academic curriculums ensures that children can continue to be inspired by Thurgood Marshall, Malcolm X, Mac Jamison, Benjamin Carson, Richard Wright, and Shirley Chisholm.

Black History Month has not only set a precedent by honoring the achievements of African Americans, but it has paved the way for other nationwide celebrations of the contributions of other races and cultures. Therefore, by supporting Congressman AL GREEN's Resolution to honor Black History Month, I also support the American idea of diversity and multiculturalism.

I commend Congressman GREEN for bringing this important resolution to the floor, and I strongly urge my colleagues' support.

HONORING THE LIFE AND SERVICE
OF INDIANA REPRESENTATIVE
RICHARD MANGUS OF
LAKEVILLE, INDIANA

HON. JOE DONNELLY

OF INDIANA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, February 7, 2008

Mr. DONNELLY. Madam Speaker, today I rise to honor the life of distinguished former State Representative Richard Mangus. Mangus, age 77, suffered a heart attack Monday, February 4, 2008 and sadly passed away.

Mr. Mangus' career in public service began in 1972 upon his election to the Indiana General Assembly. After his initial term was complete, Mr. Mangus won 15 additional elections, serving a total of 32 years. A dairy farmer for 60 years, Mangus excelled in representing the agricultural community—he knew the farmers and the types of issues they faced, and he shared a great concern for the environment. During his time in office, Mangus served as Chairman of the House Election Committee, the House Environmental Committee, and the House Natural Resources Committee. Inside the Assembly, Mangus was known for his fiery spirit, his use of theatrics and drama to prove a point, and his no-nonsense wisdom. It has been said that Mangus did not speak often, but when he did, it deserved complete attention, for he was a true political genius.

Dick Mangus' illustrious career of service has been recognized by numerous honors and awards; in fact, he was a three-time winner of the Sagamore of the Wabash honor. He has been honored as both Police Legislator of the Year and Professional Firefighter Legislator of the Year; he received the District Soil and Water Conservation Special Recognition Award for Support of District Programming, as well as the 4-H Leadership 20 year Service Award, Izaak Walton League Environmental Achievement Award, and the award for the Junior Chamber of Commerce Outstanding Citizen of the Year. Mangus was also appointed as a member of the Department of Natural Resources Commission.

Outside of his career in the state legislature, Dick Mangus served his country in the United States Army as well as owned and operated a successful family dairy farm. In 1951, he married his sweetheart, Mary, and they were together for 56 years. During this time, they raised five children: Marcia, Russell, Richard, Ronald, and Ryan. Mangus was a grandfather of seven and great-grandfather of ten.

Despite his claim to be "just a dairy farmer from Lakeville," Mangus will be remembered as much more. His legacy as a public servant will be defined by his passionate advocacy, creative methods, and humble approach. He will be dearly missed by his family, his constituents, and all Hoosiers. It is with great pride and honor that I enter former State Representative Richard Mangus' name into the United States CONGRESSIONAL RECORD.

HONORING LESTER RAY
WISEGERBER

HON. TED POE

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, February 7, 2008

Mr. POE. Madam Speaker, I would like to recognize the fine work and outstanding public service of my friend, Lester Ray Wisegerber. In 2004, Lester Ray Wisegerber became president of the Dayton Chamber of Commerce. He drew upon his diverse background to lead and represent the city of Dayton. Being a true Texan and Dayton resident for 72 years, his happy spirit and love of the town made Lester Ray a natural promoter of the city.

Celebrating their 57th wedding anniversary last December, Lester Ray and his wife Betty Jo are the proud parents of four children, twelve grandchildren and eight great grandchildren. During his lifetime Lester Ray has worn many hats, working for instance as a rancher, and a rice farmer. He helped form the Seaberg Rice Company and is also an inventor. His inventions include the "Easy Start", Dr. Hennessey's Dental Flosser, and a fuel saving motor.

Lester Ray has a long career in public service. Throughout the years, he has assisted and been recognized by numerous boards and organizations. For two terms, he served on the Dayton City Council. He served on the board of the Liberty County Farm Bureau. He served on the Dayton ISD school board for fifteen years. His service to Dayton ISD has helped improve both the life and education for the children of our community. As a former bronco football player, Lester Ray's love for sports gave way to the organization of the Bronco Booster Club Oyster Supper. For twenty four years, Lester Ray served in the Dayton Volunteer Fire Department. The list of this model citizen's accomplishments will have lasting effects on our children and our community.

Actively involved in local politics, Lester Ray currently serves as the chairman of the Liberty County Republican Party. During this time, he has successfully promoted candidates for numerous elected positions. His hard work and love for Liberty County has earned him enduring respect throughout the community.

On behalf of the Second Congressional District of Texas, I commend this remarkable Texan for his exemplary service and dedication to the city of Dayton.

And that's just the way it is.

HONORING THOMAS O. MEFFERD

HON. PETER J. ROSKAM

OF ILLINOIS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, February 7, 2008

Mr. ROSKAM. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor Thomas Mefferd for his 22 years of dedication and service to DuPage County.

Tom began his career in emergency management in 1971 as the Civil Defense Director for the Village of Plainfield, IL, a position he held for 10 years.

In 1981, Tom left municipal government and became an instructor for the Federal Emergency Management Agency, FEMA. While
